winery of the month

the pawn wine co adelaide hills, south australia

mission statement:

"with the ever increasing centralisation of the wine industry, we like you, could be forgiven for thinking we are all just pawns in the big wine company game. the release of the pawn is a manifestation of our resolve to amend this situation by releasing wines hand crafted from small parcels of premium fruit from our adelaide hills vineyards."

with this philosophy as their goal the pawn team have embarked on producing hand crafted wines from lesser known grape varieties.

2016 the austrian attack grüner veltliner

11/50

grüner veltliner is a white grape variety most closely associated with austria where it accounts for almost one third of all varieties planted. a fairly new variety to australia with one of the first plantings being in the adelaide hills back in 2008. delicate aromas of blossom and citrus with apple overtones. on the palate noticeable hints of spice and a prominent characteristic of white pepper. tightly woven acidity lead to a dry, refreshing mineral finish.

enjoy with... togarashi spiced "huon valley" atlantic salmon

2016 el desperado sangiovese tempranillo shiraz blend

10/45

a red blend showcasing the finest characteristics of each variety. a medium bodied wine that is a textural flavour bomb. the sexy aromatics of sangiovese along with perfumed spicy richness of tempranillo enhance the berry flavours and velvety tannins of shiraz. a red that can be enjoyed with a whole array of foods.

*try with... "kinkawooka" mussel + littleneck clam spaghetti or...
meaty fish like swordfish or tuna*
